Program Starts September 2012
You will receive a welcome letter in the fall.

Get your child off to a great start with other same age children. Preschool involves your child in skill-building activities with other children, laying the foundation for educational success. Your child explores his unique interests at his own pace with the encouragement of experienced, caring staff. Choose from two or three half-day programs with an open enrollment policy. Enroll now and watch your preschooler discover the world, practically in your own backyard!

Program Goals

- 1) Teach basic readiness skills in language arts and arithmetic.
- 2) To view children as competent and powerful learners, these programs build on each child's unique abilities and skills.
- 3) To provide a rich multi-sensory environment to promote, challenge and create learning opportunities.
- 4) To provide socialization and collaboration as an opportunity to develop skills to encourage cooperation and life long learners.
- 5) To promote families that are viewed as a true first teacher of children, these programs build on the culture, values and uniqueness within the classroom environment.

Enrollment Requirements

Children must be toilet trained and at least 3 years old by September 1, 2012 or 4 years of age by December 1, 2012. A current physical is required. The health form (available at all sites, Wyoming Public Schools, and public health offices), including immunization records, and the original birth certificate will be requested by the first day your child attends class.

To enroll, return the application, a list of immunizations and the first payment to:

Wyoming Public Schools
Huntington Woods Early Childhood Center
4334 Byron Center Ave.
Wyoming, MI 49519

Refund Policy for Tuition
Preschool Program

Wyoming Public Schools may need to cancel a preschool section due to low enrollment. If that occurs, parents will be offered enrollment in remaining sections or a full refund will be provided.

Withdrawal Policy for
Tuition Preschool Program

If, for any reason, a parent chooses to withdraw their child from the preschool classroom, the parent must contact the preschool office located at Wyoming Public Schools, Early Childhood Center 4334 Byron Center Ave., or phone 530-5671. The child's name will be removed from the enrollment records at that time. It is also requested that the parent contact the child's preschool teacher and school office.

The refund policy for children who are withdrawn or removed from the program is as follows: Tuition is pro-rated based on the number of days of attendance or date of notification of leaving the program. There is also a $25 processing fee for refunds.
